Basic Nature of Ordinances

Generally, ordinances are acts of legislation which are permanent in nature and which are concerned with matters that are legislative in nature.

Under the Lawrason Act:

- Any law enacted by a board of aldermen must be made by ordinance [R.S. 33:406(A)(1)]. All budget matters must be enacted by ordinance.
- Any act of the board of aldermen which is not law is a resolution [R.S. 33:406(A)(2)].

Unless otherwise provided, enactment may be evidenced by ordinance or resolution.
